

Frances H. Pletz Award for Excellence in Service to Youth

Background: The award is named for Frances H. Pletz, a former Executive Director of the Michigan Library Association, because of her exemplary library service to teens in our state. This award was established in 1978 by the Young Adult Division of the Michigan Library association and was given to a teen librarian. In 2010, the Pletz Award combined with the Children's Services Award of Merit to create the Frances H. Pletz Award for Excellence in Service to Youth.

Purpose: The award is given annually to a Michigan library staff person who has made an outstanding contribution to the field of library service to youth, ages 0-18, throughout their career.

Eligibility: Anyone who is a current individual member of the Michigan Library Association, is currently employed by a library in Michigan, and has at least three years of experience in a public library may be nominated for the award.
