

Intellectual Freedom Summit

Library leaders from across Michigan are invited to join us for a two-day Intellectual Freedom Summit focused on shaping the future of intellectual freedom policy, practice, and advocacy. This dynamic event is designed for passionate advocates of the right to read, offering a collaborative space for meaningful dialogue, strategic planning, and collective action to tackle the pressing challenges in intellectual freedom today.

Thanks to generous support from the Mellon Foundation, your registration, accommodations, and meals at the summit will be provided at no cost to you.
