

Riz's resume is already packed full of great media experiences – creating strong and worthy content, graphics and video. She is the founder and chief editor of Peach Publications, an arts and culture publication, and also currently serves as the marketing intern for the Michigan State Alumni Office. And she also performs in a leadership role at VIM Magazine as the director of diversity and inclusion, which is a student-run fashion and lifestyle magazine at Michigan State. In December, Riz will graduate with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Journalism with a concentration in writing, reporting and editing.

At MLA, Riz will work on social media projects like content development, photos, graphics, analytics and engagement. She will help us refine our use of Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, blogging and more for promoting libraries. She will also work with us on promotional, writing and research projects.

We are excited to welcome her to MLA and also excited to expand our communication efforts on our social media channels.
