

We've drafted a letter that includes a space for you to personalize your communication. Please read the letter carefully and add details about how library closures are affecting you, your library and your community.

Thank you for taking action to support libraries during this global pandemic.

Take Action Now