We would like to take the opportunity to thank MCACA and our legislators for their continued support.

This grant provides much-needed resources at this unprecedented time in history. These dollars will support our efforts to help libraries throughout Michigan continue to provide free and open access to information, promote literacy and continue to serve as centers for learning and self-discovery.